

With Allenby in Palestine

“On no stage of whatever kind has been presented anything more impressive and fascinating.”

THE MORNING POST, London.

FIELD-MARSHAL LORD ALLENBY,

Whose armies freed Palestine.

HOW would you like to tour the Holy Land and the land of the Arabian Nights?

You can do so with Allenby, and without trouble or expense.

A world-wide traveller and raconteur is coming in person with gorgeously coloured and motion pictures to take you on a personally-conducted tour of the Near East by airplane and camel caravan.

“Enjoyed by a Million”

THE DAILY MAIL: “Over one million people in London alone have enjoyed the Lowell Thomas Travelogues—‘WITH ALLENBY IN PALESTINE AND LAWRENCE IN ARABIA.’” Among them have been the royal families of Great Britain, Norway, Spain and Arabia, Mr. Lloyd George and his Cabinet, the members of both Houses of Parliament, Lord Allenby himself, and nearly all of the generals and statesmen of the British Empire.

“A New Art”

LORD BURNHAM, publisher of THE LONDON DAILY TELEGRAPH, said: “As I looked and listened I felt myself transported off to the East on a magic carpet. These Travelogues are a revelation of art as well as a revelation of romance. Mr. Lowell Thomas has almost created a new art; he has certainly combined many arts.”

"One of the most fascinating entertainments ever shown in London."—THE TATLER.

“Nothing More Completely Engrossing”

LLOYD'S WEEKLY NEWS: “In all London to-day there is nothing more completely engrossing than this Lowell Thomas Travelogue, ‘With Allenby in Palestine and Lawrence in Arabia,’ at the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden. Many things contrive to get themselves overpraised. For once let the praise ring true. For two hours great audiences sit, never moving; such is the enthrallment of the pictures they see and the thrilling story they hear. They are wonderful pictures, many of them in colours, such as have never been thrown on any British screen before. It is a great and enchanting entertainment.”
